The Purpose of Registering:

The funds collected from the registrations pay for the costs associated with using this hotel and conference center, as well as the other expenses associated with the convention including the registration packages and equipment. As this is a special event and not a regularly scheduled meeting, we require members to register in order to attend the convention. It is with your support that we are able to put on a successful convention while fulfilling our primary purpose of carrying the message to the addict who still suffers. We thank you for your cooperation and continued support!
